

Everyone,

We will be using SQL Developer to connect to a cloud-based Oracle 19 server.

Oracle Server details:

User Id: <see below>

Password: SQLClass2025

URL: 1.141.14.56

Port: 1521

Service Name: PDB1

Here is what the connection will look like:

New / Select Database Connection

Connection Na...	Connection De...
AWS-Strudent14	student14@//3...
AWS-Strudent16	student16@//3...
AWS-Strudent7	student7@//3...
AWS-Student0	student0@//3...
AWS-Student1	student1@//3...
AWS-Student10	student10@//3...
AWS-Student11	student11@//3...
AWS-Student12	student12@//3...
AWS-Student13	student13@//3...
AWS-Student15	student15@//3...
AWS-Student17	student17@//3...
AWS-Student18	student18@//3...
AWS-Student19	student19@//3...
AWS-Student2	student2@//3...
AWS-Student20	student20@//3...
AWS-student21	student21@//1...
aws-Student3	student3@//3...
AWS-Student4	student4@//3...
Aws-Student5	student5@//3...
AWS-Student6	student6@//3...
AWS-Student8	student8@//3...
AWS-Student9	student9@//3...
Sys	sys@//localho...
World	World@//localh...

Name: Color

Database Type:

User Info Proxy User

Authentication Type:

Username: Role:

Password: Save Password

Connection Type:

Details Advanced

Hostname:

Port:

SID

Service name:

Status :

Buttons:

Name

User Id

Adam Eichhorn	student1
Adrena Byler	student2
Alicia Marshall	student3
Ashleigh Cunningham	student4
Ashley Cooper	student5
Brandi Thompson	student6
Brian Lee	student7
Chris Valvo	student8
Don Maloney	student9
Hayley McGill	student10
Jamie Rinehart	student11
Jason Floyd	student12
Kyle Collins	student13
Liz White	student14
Mike Flesher	student15
Natasha Anderson	student16
Nicole Wilson	student17
Sarah Woomer	student18
Steven Burdette	student19
Tony O'Linn	student20